PROPERTY DESCRIPTION

Solidly built high and dry on a double lot, this family-sized home now comprises of 4 bedrooms and 3.5 bathrooms over 2.5 stories and is move-in ready for you and your family to grow, spending more time enjoying the spaces inside and out, less time commuting. In keeping with the original residence, this is a thoughtful and enduring renovation defined by classic clean lines, organic materials, and a focus on functionality over fussy ornamentation. The front door is concealed from the road, approached from the port-cochere with privacy screen over a carriage driveway. Entering the hallway which opens onto the custom kitchen and dining room, with an island in between and wine bar making evening entertaining a dream and starting the day at the built-in coffee station. Double doors lead to the living room with a voluminous pitched ceiling, sitting area, custom shelving and desk. The laundry backs onto the utility and guest powder room, connecting the kitchen and back patio door. There is also a study/den that has patio access. On the mezzanine level a second/large dual aspect bedroom suite, also with voluminous pitched ceilings above that are continued into the bathroom. Your own sanctuary awaits in the south facing primary suite complete with a remodelled bathroom with a walk-in jetted and rain shower system, double vanity, free standing tub to luxuriate in, separate toilet and dual walk-in wardrobes. Third and fourth queen size bedroom suites, both of which have their own closets and share a bathroom. Depending on the time of day, there is always either sun or shade to be appreciated outside. Serviced by well irrigation and separated into three parts: The large saltwater pool, deck and lawn surrounded by trees, and extra poolside shade is provided by a pergola. Grill on the brick paved back patio featuring a gas barbecue point, sliding pass through window to the kitchen, and another gate to the side space ideal for overflow parking for a cars/boat trailer.
